

IR30 Indigenous Visions In Dub (IR: Indigenous Resistance)

An experimental dub art book containing highlights of street art, graphic design, musical activism created by IR :: Indigenous Resistance (www.dubreality.com) & TFFT in the last ten years. It also contains writings on Indigenous rights especially in Brazil, the murder of Pataxo warrior Galdino and the connection between Black & Indigenous Peoples. Included are special chapters on joint resistance between Black & Native Americans and the spiritual connections between African and Indigenous peoples throughout the Americas. The book is highlighted by experimental dub art & graphic design created especially for this publication by Dubdem which compliments the words of Black & Indigenous writers and activists like John Trudell, Assata Shakur, Jeanette Armstrong, Jean Binta Breeze, Douglas Cardinal, Mutaburaka. Indigenous Resistance music is available on iTunes. When in town, visit www.dubreality.com
